

Rocky Mountain Inventors' Association

Out-of-state Individual Membership Application

(Photocopies are acceptable.)

Date: _____

The mission of The Rocky Mountain Inventors Association (RMIA) is to promote successful product commercialization and protection by offering information, education, and guidance including business contacts and networking opportunities.

The views and opinions expressed by the members of the RMIA and other participants at RMIA events, on the RMIA website, and in any publication or other forum of the RMIA are their own and not necessarily those of the RMIA.

Out-of-state memberships include a one-year subscription to Inventors Digest, attendance at regular meetings, monthly United Inventors Association Newsletter (electronic), and access to the membership roster on the RMIA website (www.rminventor.org) among other benefits

Only persons with actual residences outside the State of Colorado are eligible for the reduced-rate Out-of-state Membership in the RMIA.
